

Research Articles

National Styles in Central European and Balkan Architecture: Strivings and Discourses II

(Special editor of the block: Dániel Veress)

Gábor György Papp

“Such a Style Is in Itself a Call for Originality”: Imre Henszlmann’s Views on Reinterpretation of Gothic Forms in Nineteenth-Century Architecture 3

Jan Galeta

The Long Path to the New Moravian Diet Building 28

Anna Tejszerska

The ‘Polish National Style’ in Interwar Architecture:
The Case of Railway Station Buildings 57

Deodáth Zuh

Consensus and Lack of Consensus in the Quest for National Style:
Revisiting Five Key Aspects of the Hungarian and Romanian Contexts 101

Professionalisation in Comparative Perspective

Márkus Keller and Zsuzsanna Kiss

Profession, Autonomy, and the Intelligentsia in Central European Perspective:
Introductory Remarks 137

Gergely Magos

Empires and Their Peripheries: The Pharmacy Market in the Habsburg and British Empire 150

Viktor Papp

Attorneys on the Two Sides of the Leitha: The Professionalisation of Attorneys in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy in the Second Half of the Nineteenth and the Early Twentieth Centuries 178

Recent Studies on Central Europe

- Kornél Nagy
“Haeresis Armenorum Transsylvaniae.” Bishop György Mártonffy and the Armenian Catholic Church in Transylvania, 1718-1721 207
- Petr Wohlmuth
Oral History Narrators in Czech Military Reenactment:
An Epistemological Case Study 229

Book Reviews

- Gergely Romsics
The Middle Kingdoms. A New History of Central Europe. By Martyn Rady. 249
- Jack Wilson
Conquest and Withdrawal: The Mongol Invasions of Europe. By Stephen Pow. 255
- Marie-Madeleine de Cevins
Mendicant Economy and Estate Management in Late Medieval Hungary.
By Beatrix F. Romhányi. 259
- Bence Rácz K.
Werewolf Legends. Edited by Willem de Blécourt and Mirjam Mencej. 263
- Réka Horváth
Between Aristocratic Education and Political Representation. East Goes West:
Kavalierstours of Hungarian Aristocrats in the Seventeenth Century. By Bálint
Ugry. 270
- Gábor Koloh
Neusiedler im Land. Der Einwanderungsartikel des ungarischen Landtags von 1723 im Kontext seiner Zeit. Edited by Márta Fata. 275
- Meta Remec
An Environmental History of Knowledge and Politics: Forestry in Nineteenth-and Twentieth-Century Hungary. By Róbert Balogh. 279
- Gusztáv Kecskés D.
Diplomacy and Disregard: The Hungarian Revolution and the United Nations, 1956–1963. By András Nagy. 283